

I am an American, a born again Christian, a husband and father, a U.S. Air Force veteran, an active member of the U.S. Air Force Reserve, a business professional, and a conservative Republican. As the candidate representing We the People for the Republican Party's 2010 nomination for the Fourth Congressional District seat, I seek to restore the public trust and confidence between the people and their elected representative.

With boldness, candor, and clarity, I offer the following written commitment to the people of South Carolina's Fourth Congressional District:

- √ I will perform the job of Congressman as a servant leader recognizing above all other aspects of the position that the role of Representative is to uphold the U.S. Constitution and maintain a republican form of government in which supreme power is held by the citizens entitled to vote and is exercised by elected officers and representatives governing according to law.
- √ I will legislate with an attitude of humility and respect rooted in the Judeo-Christian worldview.
- √ I will stand firmly for the traditional values upon which this country was founded: our rights come from our Creator; a small, limited, fiscally responsible federal government of, by and for the people; and the preservation of individual liberty, self-reliance and personal responsibility.
- √ I will support and defend the whole of the U.S. Constitution; because they are under withering attack, I will staunchly defend the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 5th, 9th, 10th and 14th amendments.
- √ I will consider all proposed legislation through the lens of the powers and responsibilities delegated to the federal government as enumerated in the U.S. Constitution. I will consider what is best for America over political party and self-interest.
- √ I will aggressively oppose any legislation seeking to subordinate in any way America's sovereignty to any foreign country or international body.
- √ I will not propose or support any directed spending (e.g. "earmarks") except in cases of declared wars, natural disasters, or domestic emergencies.
- √ I will donate ten percent of my gross annual congressional salary to be used to develop, implement and sustain an objective, fact-based program to promote education and awareness of the instrumental people, documents, and history of the foundation of our country, our Constitution, our rights and liberties, and our civic responsibilities.
- √ I will conduct periodic town hall forums at least quarterly with the constituents of the Fourth Congressional District.
- √ I will conduct myself in an ethical manner worthy of the respect of the people of the Fourth Congressional District.

So Help Me God.
